-All the local school teachers whose holiday vacation.

-A large number of automobile licenses have been issued at Fowler's Ford garage this week.

-Many people in this neighborhood are suffering with severe colds, putting some of them in bed.

-Tuesday morning brought the coldest weather of the season, the thermometers registering six degrees

—The cantata presented by the Methodist choir and members of the Sunday school Christmas Eve delighted a large audience.

—On New Year's the usual holiday closing hours will be observed at the local postoffice. There will be no de-livery by rural carriers.

—During services at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning 26 automobiles were in the parking space and not a horse-drawn vehicle was in -The Canfield Gas & Electric Co. has extended its lines to the eastern border of the village and is now furnishing current to several new pat--Farmers' institute at North Jack-ford next Monday and Tuesday. Fine programs will be presented at both institutes. -Clarence Hoen recently resigned as superintendent of the American Fire Clay Products Co. plant south of Canfield and has been succeeded by Bert Hendricks.

-Local merchants report having a very satisfactory holiday business, purchases being largely confined, however, to useful gifts. The careless buying of last year entirely disappeared.

Mrs. Martha Fowler, who fell one day last week and fractured her right hip, is resting as comfortably as could be expected considering the seriousness of the accident and her advanced years.

—Dublin Grange will meet next Tuesday evening at which time the newly elected officers will be installed by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bowman of Ellsworth grange. Vernon Crouse, county delegate, will give a report of the state grange meeting recently held in Cleveland.

-A systematic canvass is being made for funds with which to provide a gymnasium for the local schools un-til such time as a new high school building is crected. It is understood that subscriptions are being freely of-fered and that a considerable fund has already been pledged.

-Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Hull entertained at a turkey dinner at their home on North Broad street Mr. and Mrs. Ohl and three sons of North Jackson, Mr. Packard of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Diehl and son Paul and Mr. and Mrs. John Allspaugh of this place.

-In the drive for Farm Burcau membership in this county about 900 men were enrolled. The entire county has not yet been covered, the work being suspended on account of the holi-days. Next week the campaign will on ship will finally approximate 1,200.

Beginning next Monday, people living in the east portion of Cornersburg and north of that place to Brickley's Corners will receive their mall by rural delivery from Youngstown instead of Canfield. The change shortens the route out of the Canfield office about three miles and affects thirty

-Charles Van Wye, a native of Austintown, died unexpectedly Wednesday night at his home in Youngstown, aged 66. Funeral services will be held Sat-urday afternoon from the home of his niece, Mrs. J. D. Geiss, 3511 Mahoning avenue. Deceased was a close friend of Aaron and Joseph Wiesner of Canfield, who had been invited and expect-ed to spend New Year's with him.

-G. N. Boughton gave an elaborate dinner Wednesday at the Methodist church for about fifty relatives and friends. There were after dinner remarks by the host and several of his guests and P. T. Jones gave the history of the Tanner family of which Mr. Boughton is a member. During the afternoon a telegram was received from ex-Gov. Charles Whitman of New York wishing Mr. R. and his guests a York wishing Mr. B. and his guests a happy and prosperous New Year.

-J. J. Flickinger has sold what is known as the "burned corner" at East Main and North Broad streets to E. R. Zieger who it is understood made the purchase for Otto Sanzenbacher and associates who will erect a building and associates who will erect a building thereon for garage purposes. Mr. Sansenbacher has also purchased the Odd Fellows' building adjoining, the deal to be closed when the grand lodge has approved the sale. Under agreement the Odd Fellows will have the use of the third floor and part of the second for three years. three years.

-Canfield people have been in it in the matter of automobile accidents the last few days. In Youngstown Wed-nesday morning a truck ran into S. A. Arnold's Dodge sedan as he was driving to work, wrecking a rear fender. Fred Royal's Ford sedan skidded into Fred Royal's Ford sedan skidded into a truck in Youngstown Tuesday and a great hole was cut in the body. The occupants escaped injury. Last Sunday night in Youngstown a car slid down the Holmes street hill and skidded into a new Ford sedan driven by Miss Marion Fowler, damaging it considerably, as two other cars finally figured in the mixup. Mrs. C. C. Fowler, who had gotten out of the sedan, was knocked down by one of the machines, but was uninjured. Miss Fowler, in hurrying to rescue her mother, sustained a badly sprained ankle.
